A YES vote on E is a vote for ethical government, and an end to pay-to-play politics as usual.

The official opponents of Prop E must be confused. Prop E would not stop all fundraising, but it would stop government officials from fundraising from people who are seeking contracts from them, or whose contracts they just approved. That’s a recipe for corruption. Plain and simple.

Since the United States Attorney began its investigation, 5 department heads, including the heads of some of San Francisco’s largest agencies, have been indicted or removed from their jobs.

We’re actually kind of shocked that there are still people in government who want to stick to the bad old ways. The official opponents to this argument fail to explain why they need to raise money from the very parties who are seeking contracts, permits or other relief from them.

The reason we’re taking this to the voters is because we don’t trust politicians to regulate themselves. Prop E is based on common sense legislation lauded by California Common Cause, an organization that advances democracy by building public trust in government.

Vote Yes on E.
