San Francisco Redistricting

Every ten years, the district boundaries of San Francisco's Supervisorial districts are redrawn to ensure that each district maintains equal numbers of residents. Members of the public are encouraged to participate in the redistricting process.

How to Participate:

- ✓ Attend any meeting held by the San Francisco Redistricting Task Force - in addition to providing general input on where district lines should be drawn, anyone is welcome to comment on proposed maps or submit map proposals. To view meeting schedule, go to sfelections.org/rdtf
- ✓ Submit comments by emailing rdtf@sfgov.org or calling (415) 554-4445
- ✓ Join the email list to receive updates issued by the Redistricting Task Force. To sign up, go to sfelections.org/rdtf
- ✓ Follow the Redistricting Task Force on Facebook and Twitter: @RedistrictSF

Make a Note!

Anyone can participate by providing public comment in-person, via email, or hand delivery! To view map proposals and other communication related to redistricting, go to sfelections.org/rdtf
