	Join the educators of San Francisco in voting NO on the recall of School Board Commissioner Alison Collins.
	Because we care for our students and love our communities, UESF stands against the BOE recalls. With everything we are facing in education this year, our students need resources, not recalls. If Collins is recalled, voters have no say in her replacement. The mayoral appointee could be a proponent of privatization and/or charter schools which do not serve all students like public schools do. An independent AND elected school board serves the interests of students and educators in defending and strengthening public education.
	Recall proponents claim a grassroots effort but they are backed by hundreds of thousands of dollars from conservatives and Trump supporters like David Sacks and Arthur Rock. ^{Without} Without the funding from these sources, they would not have been successful in collecting signatures to trigger this recall election.
	Join teachers, workers, parents, city politicians, labor organizations, community groups and many others in VOTING NO on the recall of Alison Collins.

	As an SFUSD parent and educator, I was elected to fight for equitable, inclusive and safe schools, and to ensure all students - not a select few - have access to a quality education. Over the last three years I have kept my promises to families.
	When the global pandemic hit San Francisco, I and Board and District partners took extraordinary steps to keep our communities safe, support families, and continue instruction. We partnered with the community and private sector to distribute over 36,000 laptops and 15,000 hotspots to bridge the digital divide for every student that needed it. When our communities were experiencing food insecurity, we provided over one-million meals so no child went hungry.
	We fought for clean air in every classroom, pushed for outdoor education, and took immediate action when we learned of potentially life-threatening conditions in one of our schools, Buena Vista - Horace Mann.
	We never took a break. We did this in partnership with parents and educators, always centering our most vulnerable families. When some people wanted to rush reopening before staff said schools were ready, we said "NO!" It was our responsibility to keep families, and our city, SAFE. We have been doing the work we were elected to do.
	Beyond the Covid 19 crisis, we enacted policies to involve youth in culturally responsive high school wellness programs. We became an Arts Equity District and made music instruction available to all elementary students, no matter their parent's income. We partnered with the Human Rights Commission to ensure all students PK - 12 see their culture reflected in the curriculum and their history celebrated in their schools.
	This recall is an effort to silence your voice and overturn your success in electing educators and parents who are knowledgeable and committed to our public schools.
