	I support the recall of all three San Francisco School Board members because they have failed at their jobs and failed our students. Events of the last year and a half of this global pandemic have put our public school system in an incredibly challenging position, and right now we are at a crossroads. Our kids must come first. But our School Board's priorities have often been severely misplaced, undermining the education and mental health of our students. This grassroots recall effort is led by parents whose kids have fallen far behind in their education, are breaking down from the mental health challenges of a pandemic, exacerbated by chaos in our public school system. These three school board members didn't listen to their voices, prioritize their kids in the classroom or try to solve the immense problems facing the District. It's essential that we have leadership that will tackle the challenges of hiring a new Superintendent who will lead the District through one of the most pivotal times in its history, help move the District out of its current dire fiscal situation and back onto solid financial footing, and focus on helping our students succeed after spending more than a year out of the classroom. It's time for new school board members who put kids first. Mayor London Breed

	I support the recall of all three Board of Education Members, Collins, Lopez and Moliga, because they have failed in their responsibilities as members of the Board and have failed our students and families. These three Board of Education members have all too often focused on politics instead of students. While they should have been singularly focused on safely reopening our schools, they voted against hiring a consultant to help with that process - which the Superintendent described as a "body blow" to reopening efforts - and spent time discussing renaming our schools rather than re-opening them. They've allowed the school district's fiscal standing to deteriorate so severely that the state Superintendent of Public Instruction intervened to stop the school district from becoming financially insolvent. The district needs strong and responsible leadership to right the ship. Families are pulling their children from our schools, and enrollment is at its lowest level in decades. We need leadership that prioritizes and uplifts all of our students and that is fully focused on their well-being over personal political priorities. Senator Scott Wiener

	This Board of Education has failed so completely at its job that we now face a special election to recall several of its members.
	Families for San Francisco considers five principles in evaluating each removal:
	1 - Performance: failure to perform the duties of the office to a minimum standard.
	2 - Process: undemocratic processes while in office; blatant disregard of rules and procedures.
	3 - Power: abuse of power and position to harass or diminish the voice of constituents.
	4 - Interest: placing personal interest over the interests of the public and/or the institution that is overseen.
	5- Conduct: pattern of conduct that disrupts the proper functioning of the position, office, or agency.
	Alison Collins has failed to perform to the minimum standards for a Board of Education commissioner. Collins was a champion for the school renaming project instead of fighting to reopen them during the pandemic. She has abused her office to harass and diminish constituents on multiple occasions. She demonstrated extreme bias against the AAPI community and failed to apologize. When multiple political figures called on her to resign, she responded by suing the school district and her colleagues.
	Families for San Francisco recommends a vote to recall Commissioner Alison Collins.

B	DON'T DESTROY THE MURALS. RECALL THE SCHOOL BOARD.
	Commissioners Alison Collins, Faauuga Moliga, and Gabriela Lopez voted to paint over George Washington High School' s murals because they depict an unvarnished history of America' s founding.
	These murals honestly present our first President and his times, highlighting the American Revolution and creation of the Constitution, and Washington's commitment to education. They also show African American enslavement at Mount Vernon and the disastrous consequences of western expansion for Native Americans. The muralist, a colleague of Diego Rivera, was persecuted for his political views.
	Poet Alice Walker, whose daughter attended George Washington High, commented: "it is never a good idea to destroy art; it is better to explain it. That is what education helps us to do; the murals depict George Washington in a truer light than most other works and histories."
	Dewey Crumpler, creator of the "Multi-Ethnic Heritage" mural at George Washington, warned, "If you whitewash that mural, it will only bleed in history more powerfully than it bleeds right now."
	As educators, artists, historians and citizens who oppose censorship, we want these murals, as well as those at Mission High School, Roosevelt Middle School, Aptos Middle School, and Harvey Milk Civil Rights Academy, to be used for their intended purpose - to illustrate history.
	President Biden stated "Great nations don't ignore their most painful moments...they embrace them...And in remembering those moments, we begin to heal and grow stronger."
	When artworks depict uncomfortable but historically accurate images, they stimulate discussions about our past and energize students.
	Don't "cancel" the George Washington High murals. Recall Commissioners Alison Collins, Faauuga Moliga and Gabriela Lopez.

	We are parents, teachers and alumni of Lowell High School. We support the recall of all three members of the Board of Education, because they have failed the families of San Francisco and particularly of our school. We agree with others who have pointed out the many ways that these elected officials have not done their jobs, not focused on dealing with the pandemic and so mismanaged finances that the state might take over the district. But there are other issues that affect our school in particular. People across the district and even at Lowell disagree about whether there should be competitive or lottery admissions. But almost everyone agrees that before making such a fundamental change to a San Francisco institution, the board needed to learn as much as possible about the issue, look at studies of other schools and cities across the country and world and listen to people throughout the district and at our school who will be most affected by such a change. That didn't happen. Instead, the School Board made a rushed decision in minimal time, did no research, allowed very little public input and made no effort at all to reach out to the school community. 	Taxpayers deserve better! Recall School Board Members Collins, Moliga and Lopez!
	San Francisco's public schools are a disgrace to pupils and the taxpayers who underwrite expenditures.
	Enrollment is about 49,500 students, less than half the 1970 enrollment when San Francisco's population was almost 100,000 less than now.
	School Board spending has created an enormous deficit. Over one year ago, the state Department of Education ordered the District to prepare a financial recovery plan from an expected deficit over $100,000,000 in 2022. Only now, with the State ready to assume decision-making over the operation and budget of our schools, is the School Board preparing a plan.
	The Board hired several expensive local and out of town law firms to defend itself against three losing lawsuits for violating the open meeting law. These Board members put politics above students when they voted unlawfully to rename 44 schools, cover over historic murals at George Washington High School without obeying the California Environmental Quality Act, and suffered an attorney fee award of $145,000 while dumbing down admission requirements at Lowell High School. Lowell, a unique, nationally recognized high school with admission based on grades, tests, and essays, has been a multi-year obsession of these unqualified Board members to abandon merit and adopt lottery admissions.
	Without merit, Commissioner Collins sued the District and board members for $87,000,000 costing the District another $120,000 in legal costs. Instead of seeking reimbursement from Collins, Commissioner Moliga and the Board opted to pay the costs -- effectively leaving less money for classrooms and students. The Board continues to assign pupils to schools outside their own neighborhood schools under a "lottery" system, which with busing, costs taxpayers millions.
	For the sake of students and taxpayers, vote to recall Commissioners Collins, Moliga, and Lopez.
	San Francisco Taxpayers Association Quentin L. Kopp, President
	If handwritten information or a revision is unclear, Department staff will interpret the handwritten information to the best of their abilities; this interpretation is final.
