	I support the recall of all three Board of Education Members, Collins, Lopez and Moliga, because they have failed in their responsibilities as members of the Board and have failed our students and families. These three Board of Education members have all too often focused on politics instead of students. While they should have been singularly focused on safely reopening our schools, they voted against hiring a consultant to help with that process - which the Superintendent described as a "body blow" to reopening efforts - and spent time discussing renaming our schools rather than re-opening them. They've allowed the school district's fiscal standing to deteriorate so severely that the state Superintendent of Public Instruction intervened to stop the school district from becoming financially insolvent. The district needs strong and responsible leadership to right the ship. Families are pulling their children from our schools, and enrollment is at its lowest level in decades. 	The Case for Recalling the San Francisco School Board Well-run public schools are essential for a city to function and thrive. San Francisco's future depends on being able to retain families, but too many are moving away because of our mismanaged public schools. That's why every resident should care about the school board. There are troubling trends on this school board's watch that keep San Francisco from having high quality public schools: San Francisco ranks among the worst school districts in California when it comes to the achievement gap facing Black and Latino students. A quarter of our kids attend private school, compared to only nine percent in California. We have to attract families back to public schools — especially the working parents stretching themselves to pay for private tuition. Many families leave San Francisco for better schools when kids reach a certain age, which contributes to San Francisco having the lowest percentage of children among major U.S. cities. We can't fix our public schools without first fixing an incompetent school board, which has ignored a deficit crisis and drop in enrollment that could lead to a state takeover. That's why we must recall the school board commissioners who failed their core duty to safely reopen schools for more than a year after the COVID pandemic started. Their inaction subjected students to harmful learning loss and mental health stress for many months longer than necessary. Alison Collins, Gabriela Lopez, and Faauuga Moliga were the only commissioners eligible for recall when the effort started. Otherwise, all seven commissioners would have been on the recall list for participating in disastrous decisions that hurt the public schools San Francisco's families depend on. Read the point-by-point case for recall: engardio.com/blog/school-board-recall-case Joel Engardio

	DONT DESTROY THE MURALS. RECALL THE SCHOOL BOARD.
	Commissioners Alison Collins, Faauuga Moliga, and Gabriela Lopez voted to paint over George Washington High School' s murals because they depict an unvarnished history of America' s founding.
	These murals honestly present our first President and his times, highlighting the American Revolution and creation of the Constitution, and Washington's commitment to education. They also show African American enslavement at Mount Vernon and the disastrous consequences of western expansion for Native Americans. The muralist, a colleague of Diego Rivera, was persecuted for his political views.
	Poet Alice Walker, whose daughter attended George Washington High, commented: "it is never a good idea to destroy art; it is better to explain it. That is what education helps us to do; the murals depict George Washington in a truer light than most other works and histories."
	Dewey Crumpler, creator of the "Multi-Ethnic Heritage" mural at George Washington, warned, "If you whitewash that mural, it will only bleed in history more powerfully than it bleeds right now."
	As educators, artists, historians and citizens who oppose censorship, we want these murals, as well as those at Mission High School, Roosevelt Middle School, Aptos Middle School, and Harvey Milk Civil Rights Academy, to be used for their intended purpose - to illustrate history.
	President Biden stated "Great nations don't ignore their most painful moments...they embrace them...And in remembering those moments, we begin to heal and grow stronger."
	When artworks depict uncomfortable but historically accurate images, they stimulate discussions about our past and energize students.

	Commissioners Alison Collins, Faauga Moliga, and Gabriela Lopez voted to paint over George Washington High School' s murals because they depict an unvarnished history of America' s founding.
	These murals honestly present our first President and his times, highlighting the American Revolution and creation of the Constitution, and Washington's commitment to education. They also show African American enslavement at Mount Vernon and the disastrous consequences of western expansion for Native Americans. The muralist, a colleague of Diego Rivera, was persecuted for his political views.
	Poet Alice Walker, whose daughter attended George Washington High, commented: "it is never a good idea to destroy art; it is better to explain it. That is what education helps us to do; the murals depict George Washington in a truer light than most other works and histories."
	Dewey Crumpler, creator of the "Multi-Ethnic Heritage" mural at George Washington, warned, "If you whitewash that mural, it will only bleed in history more powerfully than it bleeds right now."
	As educators, artists, historians and citizens who oppose censorship, we want these murals, as well as those at Mission High School, Roosevelt Middle School, Aptos Middle School, and Harvey Milk Civil Rights Academy, to be used for their intended purpose - to illustrate history.
	President Biden stated "Great nations don't ignore their most painful moments...they embrace them...And in remembering those moments, we begin to heal and grow stronger."

	Commissioners Alison Collins, Faauuga Moliga, and Gabriela Lopez voted to paint over George Washington High School' s murals because they depict an unvarnished history of America' s founding.
	These murals honestly present our first President and his times, highlighting the American Revolution and creation of the Constitution, and Washington's commitment to education. They also show African American enslavement at Mount Vernon and the disastrous consequences of western expansion for Native Americans. The muralist, a colleague of Diego Rivera, was persecuted for his political views.
	Poet Alice Walker, whose daughter attended George Washington High, commented: "it is never a good idea to destroy art; it is better to explain it. That is what education helps us to do; the murals depict George Washington in a truer light than most other works and histories."
	Dewey Crumpler, creator of the "Multi-Ethnic Heritage" mural at George Washington, warned, "If you whitewash that mural, it will only bleed in history more powerfully than it bleeds right now."
	As educators, artists, historians and citizens who oppose censorship, we want these murals, as well as those at Mission High School, Roosevelt Middle School, Aptos Middle School, and Harvey Milk Civil Rights Academy, to be used for their intended purpose - to illustrate history.
	President Biden stated "Great nations don't ignore their most painful moments...they embrace them...And in remembering those moments, we begin to heal and grow stronger."
	When artworks depict uncomfortable but historically accurate images, they stimulate discussions about our past and energize students.

	As a parent of two graduates from SFUSD and as the co-founder of a city-wide advocacy group that initiated both the public school enrollment fair and the arts education resource fair, I have spent the past thirty years supporting all efforts to improve and promote public schools in San Francisco. Never in all my years have I encountered a group of individuals so clearly unprepared, incompetent, and untrustworthy as Collins, Moliga and Lopez. They destroyed the nearly 40 year old Youth Arts Festival and wasted time and resources through their ill-fated initiatives such as the school renaming process. They made policy changes such as Lowell admissions in violation of their own governance laws and abused district funds and resources on frivolous lawsuits.	17 16 16 15 2 15 14 14
	How can we trust this current board to select a new superintendent, revise the student assignment process, focus on our students and teachers and build back confidence in our public schools? I am a Democrat in favor of recalling Collins, Moliga and Lopez. Please note that 22 current and former elected SF officials including all but one Supervisor called on Collins to resign.
