The safety of San Francisco is dependent upon recalling Chesa Boudin now.
Chesa Boudin refuses to uphold his duty to protect public safety and has failed at managing his office. He has placed the rights of criminal offenders over that of victims and has failed to hold offenders accountable or require them to meaningfully engage in rehabilitative programming.
I am one of the 53 prosecutors that have resigned since Chesa Boudin took office. I first served under George Gascón and saw firsthand what a real progressive prosecutor can accomplish. George Gascón created programs that helped offenders positively change their lives. Chesa Boudin is abusing the programs that George Gascón and Kamala Harris created by not requiring that offenders do what is required in those programs.
I resigned because I believe in the need for reform and alternatives to incarceration, and Chesa Boudin is failing to do his job on both reform and public safety. His incompetence is failing us all, and until we recall him, more prosecutors will continue to leave and more San Franciscans will be victimized.
Being a progressive prosecutor does not mean refusing to hold repeat and violent offenders accountable or allowing drug dealers to profit and prey on the vulnerable. We must hold offenders accountable while creating meaningful paths for them to address the issues that have led to their criminal behavior. It is not reform when his actions are negatively impacting vulnerable communities and communities of color – the very people he swore to protect.
B	To make San Francisco safer, vote YES to Recall Chesa Boudin.

	As a California prosecutor during the past 30 years, including the past 7 years in San Francisco, I have dedicated my career to seeking criminal justice for all. I am supporting the recall of Chesa Boudin because I've concluded based on my personal experience in his office that he is unfit to serve as our District Attorney.
	His reckless and often impulsive decisions to prematurely release criminal offenders back onto our streets endanger public safety without accomplishing any meaningful reform of our criminal justice system. Unlike his predecessors Kamala Harris and George Gascón, Chesa Boudin has not developed any new, innovative programs to rehabilitate criminal offenders or prevent crime other than those already mandated by law. Meanwhile, his refusal to hold criminal offenders accountable for their acts has resulted in a staggering 20% decline in convictions from 2019 to 2021.
	Furthermore, his management of the office resembles an autocracy where he calls all the shots based on his own political preferences rather than an executive branch of government charged with enforcing the laws of the State of California fairly, equitably and effectively. He has refused to enforce existing laws to prosecute illegal gang activity, drug dealers and repeat criminal offenders based on his radical political views, not the law.
	53 prosecutors, or nearly 40%, have resigned their positions since he assumed office two years ago. Meanwhile, several local judges have publicly admonished his office for being mismanaged and disorganized.
B	The result of Chesa Boudin's radical politics and mismanagement is chaos both in the office and on the streets. We cannot wait until the next election to restore safety to our homes, our neighborhoods and our businesses. Please vote YES to recall Chesa Boudin now.

	As delegates to the California Democratic Party, we respect the democratic process, and when it is threatened, we use democratic tools to uphold it. Now is that time.
	To be clear, this is not a Republican-led Recall. The leaders of this coalition are Democrats. Nearly 1 in 10 San Francisco residents signed the petition to Recall Chesa. San Franciscans are feeling less safe, and it's directly because of the decisions Chesa is making.
	Chesa's outcomes are not progressive. He claims to support communities of color, but he doesn't, nor does he fight for justice for families. Chesa has not developed any progressive programs, like George Gascón or Kamala Harris did.
	Chesa's campaign promised reform, yet he delivered increased crime, and dereliction of duty. He is dismantling our criminal justice system, and impeding reform. Addressing criminal behavior is complex, and requires more than Chesa's excuses and routine indifference.
	We need a DA who addresses our issues, not postures for national audiences. Crime is up citywide and we cannot afford to wait any longer.
	Together, our diverse, strong coalition of Democrats can ensure public safety and criminal justice reform prevail.

	I'm proud to serve on San Francisco's Democratic County Central Committee, and I can tell you this is not a "Republican-led Recall." The effort to make San Francisco safer is led by Democrats, parents, career prosecutors, victims advocates, and criminal justice reform leaders, who no longer feel safe and worry about the future of our City under Chesa Boudin. I've been a prosecutor for more than 20 years. I know that Chesa Boudin's failure to balance criminal justice reform, public safety, and victims' rights has led to unsafe conditions throughout San Francisco, especially in the most vulnerable communities like the Tenderloin. He has repeatedly violated Marsy's Law - the Victims' Bill of Rights - which is intended to ensure that victims are treated with fairness, respect, and dignity. As an Asian woman and mother of two young children, I fear that Chesa Boudin is making our City less safe for me and families like mine. Anti-Asian hate and violence are up 567% from 2020 to 2021, and he's not taking these hate crimes seriously. Monolingual AAPI victims and their families continually report that they do not have access to translators to get the help and justice they deserve. B Chesa Boudin's failure is inexcusable. We can't sit around and wait for the next election. Please join us and vote YES to recall Chesa Boudin. Nancy Tung, Member, San Francisco Democratic County Central Committee

	I am a father, husband, small business owner, and multi-generational native San Franciscan. My father worked on Hyde St., my grandfather had a factory on Clementina off 6th Street. The Tenderloin and Mid-Market areas are and have been part of my life for 50 years. After owning my own small business in the neighborhood for 20+ years, I had to close it down due to rampant drug dealing on my corner. After two and a half years later, my neighbors and I have seen no help from the District Attorney's office in reducing the open-air drug dealing that plagues our neighborhood. It has become evident Chesa Boudin doesn't care about the safety and well-being of the people in the Tenderloin/Mid-Market area or the city in general. Allowing open-air dealing and the violence attached to it endangers all of us. My neighbors are predominantly BIPOC, people on government assistance, the elderly, and people in recovery. The neighborhood children are growing up with drug dealing, drug abuse, and unchecked violence as their "normal". It's shameful and unacceptable. Boudin was unprepared for this job, is unable to lead an office, hasn't made any meaningful change, and has made our city less safe, less livable, and a harder place to operate a business. 	I've lived in the Richmond District neighborhood for 17 years, and I've never seen crime, especially property crime, as bad as this. Many cities and communities across the country have seen upticks in crime, but nothing even remotely close to the spike that's happened in Chesa Boudin's consequence-free San Francisco. This is indisputable, regardless of how much Chesa says otherwise while blaming everyone but himself. Alongside the countless home burglaries and never-ending smash and grabs, the major commercial corridors of my neighborhood have been reduced to open air drug sites and shoplifting buffets. Businesses (small and large) are folding under these unsustainable conditions. Local mom &amp; pop shops have been burglarized three, four, sometimes five or more times. The reason is not complicated: Chesa Boudin has emboldened criminals because they know they won't face consequences. In his first year in office, burglaries spiked by 49%, and 84% of charged perpetrators were back on the streets within two days. We're all fed up with what Chesa Boudin has done to our neighborhoods. Neighbors across the city find themselves upgrading their locks, installing security cameras, and carrying pepper spray just to walk down the street. Enough is enough. We shouldn't have to live like this. People in other cities don't. B We need a real prosecutor as our District Attorney. Recall Chesa Boudin now. Mark Dietrich

I've been a San Francisco resident since 1979, a Democrat since 1990, and am a U.S. Army veteran. I am the founder of the United Peace Collaborative, an organization fighting hard to ensure Asian Americans and our communities are safe and free to thrive and prosper. Our mission is to safeguard, empower, and educate the Asian American community against discrimination and violence. District Attorney Chesa Boudin has failed in protecting San Francisco's Asian communities against hate crimes. He has failed victims and their families. It's why I joined the effort to recall Chesa Boudin from the very beginning and helped organize Chinatown and other neighborhoods to make their voices heard. San Francisco's residents, merchants, employees, and visitors deserve to be safe and feel protected in the city where we live, run businesses, work, and explore. I organize street patrols in Chinatown every single day because our parents and grandparents fear for their lives. Shops owners are afraid that their storefronts will be broken into, and many are. Public safety should be Chesa Boudin's highest priority, but it feels like he's focused more on politics and optics than protecting us from the dangerous people on the street preying on vulnerable individuals, especially the elderly. There is no justice when there is no peace, and San Francisco's Asian communities are continually traumatized by violence, hate, and neglect from his office. If you value a safer San Francisco for everyone, please join us and vote YES to recall Chesa Boudin. Leanna Louie If handwritten information or a revision is unclear, Department staff will interpret the handwritten information to the best of their abilities; this interpretation is final. Total Word Count 234

	Chesa Boudin is a massively narcissistic liar. As chief law enforcement officer for San Francisco, it's astounding how Chesa Boudin continuously lies to residents, to tourists and to business owners. He lies to victims of crime and lies to the media. He lied about the funders of his own campaign for office in 2019, and he lies about who are backing the overall effort to recall him. Chesa Boudin's policies are a failure. He failed to fulfill nearly every one of his campaign promises. He failed our Asian community. He failed to prosecute the most serious felonies and instead enables crime across the city. He failed to hold drug dealers accountable. Chesa Boudin covered up his concealment of exculpatory evidence at trial, and he got caught. He covers up crime data so you won't see how poorly his office is doing. He covers up the chaos in his own district attorney's office. Chesa Boudin places blame on everyone, never accepting personal responsibility. He blames the media, he blames SFPD, he blames our Mayor, he even comically blames so-called "republicans". And don't forget, he's taking nearly $400,000 annually in salary and benefits from taxpayers. On Election Day, don't even hesitate - Mr. Boudin's well-earned recall is long overdue – so Vote YES to recall Chesa Boudin, emphatically and proudly. Visit RecallChesaBoudin.org for more insight. Richie Greenberg, Chairman Yes on Recall Chesa Boudin Committee

	I worked in the San Francisco District Attorney's Office Crime Strategies Unit for 7 years with a highly skilled, multi-disciplinary team of prosecutors and investigators from several law enforcement agencies. I focused on innovative strategies to improve public safety through prevention and prosecution of crime while finding effective alternatives to incarceration. District Attorney Chesa Boudin has demonstrated he isn't capable of keeping our city safe. His ineffective policies, lack of transparency, and dishonest excuses for his failures have caused half of the office to resign and alienated law enforcement partners. He is failing to support victims of crime while also depriving defendants of the services they would receive if their cases were appropriately charged. As a prosecutor I saw firsthand how effective the criminal justice system can be at getting medication, housing, and treatment and transforming the lives of defendants for the better. Chesa Boudin has abandoned those that need our help. Every day Chesa Boudin remains in office more San Franciscans are victimized and the reputation of our city is tarnished. Recall Chesa Boudin now. Tom Ostly, Former Assistant District Attorney

	I was born and raised in San Francisco, and I'm deeply concerned about the future direction of our city that we all love. I, like many of my friends and neighbors, no longer feel safe, especially downtown.
	Small businesses and our city's economy were hit hard by the pandemic, also unchecked organized crime is out of control, drugs are being sold to addicts who "hit-up", loiter and overdose in plain view. Tourists hesitate to visit. Businesses don't feel safe operating and they're struggling to hire workers due to rising violence and thefts.
	Our local economy can't recover until Chesa Boudin is out of office and our city has someone who takes public safety seriously. Vote YES to recall Chesa now.

	The San Francisco Taxpayers Association, founded in 1991, was formed to give voice to beleaguered, overlooked, and hard-working taxpayers in local elections.
	Now, our tax dollars fund a District Attorney, elected with only 35.7% of the vote, who seems more inclined to decline prosecution of criminals arrested by law enforcement officers or dismiss criminal cases already filed.
	Boudin, a former Deputy Public Defender, would make a good college professor, but San Francisco needs a functional prosecutorial arm of government and a competent District Attorney.
	The office has experienced dozens of firings and resignations of experienced Deputy District Attorneys because they don't satisfy Boudin's agenda of diverting criminal prosecution and sentencing for law breakers.
	We support with gusto the Recall of Chesa Boudin.
	Corruption in City Hall has cheated taxpayers of millions of dollars and deprives all San Franciscans of honest government.
	Boudin has increased his staff and budget – his budget is $83,236,173 for this year! Increasing public integrity unit staff but doing virtually nothing but grabbing headlines to prosecute these crimes, leaving all the work to the United States Attorney to pursue successfully corruption cases in the Department of Public Works, Department of Building Inspection and Recology, Inc. and the officers and employees who have stolen taxpayer money. The taxpayer-funded Ethics Commission also refers unethical conduct to the District Attorney's office, but no criminal prosecutions for scandalous activity has resulted from Boudin. In fiscal year 2019-2020 the Integrity Unit budget was approximately $13 million dollars for some eight prosecutors and four investigators – nothing occurred after Boudin was sworn in.
	Taxpayers deserve better. Vote to Recall Chesa Boudin to improve public safety, protect the innocent and convict the guilty, demand prosecutorial excellence and heightened duty of candor and restore the rule of law in our great City.
