	VOTE NO ON PROP B – It ' s Baloney!
	The Department of Public Works (DPW) constitutes an important part of city government responsible for construction, design, and engineering, street repair, cleaning, and building maintenance and trees.
	For over a century, the Chief Administrative Officer and now the Mayor, our chief executive, appoint and oversee DPW. Because the DPW was charged by the U.S. Attorney with corruption, big government supervisors leaped to add yet another commission to 123 existing commissions at additional annual cost of $6 million. The Board of Supervisors is authorized also to add another commission over another new department, Department of Sanitation/Streets for street cleaning, repair, and trees!
	With a feckless DA, sponsor Haney thinks this will take the heat off City Hall criminality.
	It'll simply cost taxpayers money for more taxeaters.
