Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Consent Form is required.

Facilitate typesetting, and reduce the possibility of transcription error by sending an electronic copy of your ballot argument text within 24 hours after submission to the Department at publications@sfgov.org.

	Yes on K is supported by a united coalition representing the diversity of San Francisco. We stand together against the legacy of racism and classism in California housing law and support more affordable housing for low-income and working class households. Opponents represent a fringe group that opposes public schools, opposes clean air and water regulations, and favors unlimited sales of assault weapons. Their housing "fable" is exactly that: a tall tale unhinged from reality that has no basis in history or fact. Yes on K is only required because 70 years ago, a group of segregationists narrowly won an amendment to the California Constitution called Article 34. It aimed to block the creation and funding of housing for low-income households, and targeted people of color. Voting Yes on K is a step towards erasing this stain of racism in our constitution. Yes on K also authorizes an innovative form of affordable housing called municipal social housing. This is an internationally proven solution – in Vienna, Austria, 62% of households live in some form of social housing, where most tenants spend no more than 20-25% of their income on rent. Authorizing municipal social housing will aid our efforts to make San Francisco more affordable and reduce homelessness. Please join the organizations and leaders who represent every corner of our city, and vote Yes on K. San Francisco Democratic Party Coalition on Homelessness Affordable Housing Alliance Housing Rights Committee San Francisco Tenants Union Jobs with Justice San Francisco www.SocialHousingSF.com
