Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Consent Form is required.

Facilitate typesetting, and reduce the possibility of transcription error by sending an electronic copy of your ballot argument text within 24 hours after submission to the Department at publications@sfgov.org.

	Vote NO on Prop B, which senselessly carves up and politicizes the Department of Public Works. It creates two new bureaucracies, transfers power to the Board of Supervisors and Mayor, and prohibits voters like you from influencing policy. In the wake of the FBI arrest on corruption charges of former Director of Public Works Mohammed Nuru — who had troubling ties to City Hall — we need new approaches to oversight for major public expenditures, including citizen ordinances. Prop D spins out a new Department of Sanitation and Streets, then transfers authority over both this new agency and what's left behind to bloated, expensive commissions of political appointees. (Same old, same old). According to the City Controller, half the DoPW employees will transfer and spending will increase by as much as $6 million per year. But why? Nothing here establishes new obligations or standards. It's status quo for the syringes, needles and human waste on the streets, and the homeless encampments posing challenges during the pandemic. (The Supervisors missed another opportunity this election: amend the charter to require District Attorney Chesa Boudin enforce Quality of Life Laws critical to public health). The Board of Supervisors and Mayor are seizing exclusive ordinance authority to set standards and transfer duties between Departments. Prop B prohibits use of citizen ordinances to change policy at the Department of Public Works or Department of Sanitation and Streets. Larry Marso
