During the COVID-19 pandemic, sanitation and cleanliness have never been more important.

San Francisco is one of the only major American cities without a Department of Sanitation. And infectious disease experts say that our streets are so dirty that our risk of infection is as high as communities in parts of the world suffering from extreme poverty.

We need a Department dedicated to street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy... it's just common sense.

WHAT WILL THE DEPARTMENT OF SANITATION DO?

- Data-Driven Cleaning: Right now, street cleaning is done sporadically. Using a data-driven model, the Department of Sanitation & Streets will make sure that every neighborhood is cleaned to the standards of a modern city.
- Sanitize Streets & Sidewalks: The Department of Sanitation and Streets will provide daily street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy during COVID 19 and after.
- Clean & Safe Public Toilets: Everyone needs ready access to clean and safe public restrooms. It's a basic and essential City responsibility that is not being adequately addressed now.
- Accountability & Oversight: The new Department will have a Citizen Oversight Commission that will set baseline standards for the Department, control spending and investigate corruption.

Please join Laborers Local 261-- the hard-working men and women who clean our sidewalks, repair our streets, and remove our trash--and vote for this common sense measure that will finally address our city's biggest embarrassment.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, sanitation and cleanliness have never been more important.
San Francisco is one of the only major American cities without a Department of Sanitation. And infectious disease experts say that our streets are so dirty that our risk of infection is as high as communities in parts of the world suffering from extreme poverty.
We need a Department dedicated to street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy... it's just common sense.

· Clean & Safe Public Toilets: Everyone needs ready access to clean and safe public restrooms. It's a basic and essential City responsibility that is not being adequately addressed now.
· Accountability & Oversight: The new Department will have a Citizen Oversight Commission that will set baseline standards for the Department, control spending and investigate corruption.
Please join Laborers Local 261-- the hard-working men and women who clean our sidewalks, repair our streets, and remove our trash--and vote for this common sense measure that will finally address our city's biggest embarrassment.

We need a Department dedicated to street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy... it's just common sense.

WHAT WILL THE DEPARTMENT OF SANITATION DO?

- Data-Driven Cleaning: Right now, street cleaning is done sporadically. Using a data-driven model, the Department of Sanitation & Streets will make sure that every neighborhood is cleaned to the standards of a modern city.
- Sanitize Streets & Sidewalks: The Department of Sanitation and Streets will provide daily street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy during COVID 19 and after.
- Clean & Safe Public Toilets: Everyone needs ready access to clean and safe public restrooms. It's a basic and essential City responsibility that is not being adequately addressed now.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, sanitation and cleanliness have never been more important.

San Francisco is one of the only major American cities without a Department of Sanitation. And infectious disease experts say that our streets are so dirty that our risk of infection is as high as communities in parts of the world suffering from extreme poverty.

We need a Department dedicated to street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy... it's just common sense.

WHAT WILL THE DEPARTMENT OF SANITATION DO?

- Data-Driven Cleaning: Right now, street cleaning is done sporadically. Using a data-driven model, the Department of Sanitation & Streets will make sure that every neighborhood is cleaned to the standards of a modern city.
- Sanitize Streets & Sidewalks: The Department of Sanitation and Streets will provide daily street and sidewalk cleaning to keep our public areas sanitary and our communities healthy during COVID 19 and after.
- Clean & Safe Public Toilets: Everyone needs ready access to clean and safe public restrooms. It's a basic and essential City responsibility that is not being adequately addressed now.
- Accountability & Oversight: The new Department will have a Citizen Oversight Commission that will set baseline standards for the Department, control spending and investigate corruption.

Please join Laborers Local 261-- the hard-working men and women who clean our sidewalks, repair our streets, and remove our trash--and vote for this common sense measure that will finally address our city's biggest embarrassment.
