Many of our neighborhood institutions and small businesses are suffering through the COVID-19 pandemic, but we can provide real support by passing Prop H. By streamlining the onerous permitting process and reducing the time and it takes to get a permit will help support our existing and new businesses in commercial areas, like those around Castro Street, Polk Street, 24th Street, Folsom Street, among others throughout the City, This will allow new businesses to open up more quickly while lowering their costs, and existing businesses will have more opportunities to update their operations and diversify their services. Many of our neighborhood institutions and small businesses are suffering through the COVID-19 pandemic, but we can provide real support by passing Prop H. By streamlining the onerous permitting process and reducing the time and it takes to get a permit will help support our existing and new businesses in commercial areas, like those around Castro Street, Polk Street, 24th Street, Folsom Street, among others throughout the City, This will allow new businesses to open up more quickly while lowering their costs, and existing businesses will have more opportunities to update their operations and diversify their services.
