Prop I only impacts the sales of properties worth $10 million or more. Only sellers of skyscrapers and mega-mansions will pay. Homeowners and small businesses will not pay a cent.

Don't let big business fool you: As small business owners, we want you to know the facts:

- Misleading you about who they represent. Opponents do NOT represent small business. One is Executive Director of the Chamber of Commerce, representing massive corporations. Another is a lobbyist for the real estate industry.
- Lying about the impact on small business. Neighborhood stores, restaurants, bars and nail salons don't sell property valued at $10 million or more. They will NOT be impacted.
- Would increase evictions and homelessness. Without Prop I's funding for emergency rent relief, we will see more evictions and homelessness.
- Want you to pay, not them. San Francisco's budget deficit is $1.7 billion. If we don't raise revenue from those who can AFFORD to pay, then we will pay the cost ourselves.

Prop I saves small businesses -- it keeps our workers in their jobs by keeping them in their homes.

Billionaires and big corporations have seen windfall profits from the pandemic. The rest of us have paid the price. It's time for the wealthiest to help those who are struggling.

Please vote YES on I.
