RE: Proposition F – Initiative Ordinance prohibiting certain campaign contributions, including some from any person with pending or recently resolved land use matters before the City; expand disclaimer requirements for independent expenditure committee advertisements

Dear Mr. Arntz,

Should the proposed initiative ordinance be approved by the voters, in my opinion, it would have a minimal impact on the cost of government.

The ordinance expands the list of corporate entities prohibited from contributing to a candidate committee. In addition, the ordinance includes a new section of the Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code prohibiting any contribution to a member of the Board of Supervisors, a candidate for the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, a candidate for Mayor, the City Attorney, or a candidate for City Attorney from a person, or the person's affiliated entities, with a financial interest of at least $5 million in a land use matter before various specified boards within 12 months from the date of the final resolution of the matter. Finally, the ordinance expands filing and disclosure requirements for contributions to campaign advertisements.

The Ethics Department would incur some additional staff costs related to monitoring and enforcement of the proposed additional filing and disclosure requirements and prohibited entities. One-time costs for software development of new reporting requirements would be $50,000 to $100,000.

Sincerely,
