Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author support the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Form is required.

| | Proposition E is for Everyone Proposition E is led by the community – tenants, teachers, fire fighters, and construction workers – because they need affordable housing the most. The opponents of Proposition E are putting developer profits ahead of housing that works for working class San Franciscans. The opponents of Proposition E want to give private developers millions in benefits with NO guarantee of oversight, NO guarantee of affordability, NO guarantee of construction, and NO labor requirements. Our city has seen several new projects breaking ground that offer over 30% affordable units – like 681 Florida, which includes 42% affordable units (including two-bedroom units) and 5M, which features 33% affordable units (including senior and family housing). We can also build more affordable housing faster with good paying union jobs. 1629 Market Street will provide 500 units of housing and 100 affordable units, while creating 1,800 union jobs. Proposition E will build more affordable housing, and employ thousands of union workers. Opponents of Proposition E have repeatedly attempted to block housing projects through CEQA appeals. Yet, they blame others for delays in housing. This double standard illustrates that their main goal isn't the creation of housing, but maximizing profits. Workers support Proposition E because Proposition E supports workers, not billionaire investors. Supervisor Connie Chan Board President Shamann Walton Supervisor Aaron Peskin Supervisor Dean Preston Supervisor Hillary Ronen San Francisco Labor Council San Francisco Building Trades San Francisco Fire Fighters Local 798 United Educators of San Francisco Unite HERE Local 2 | |
