Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Consen Form is required.

We Need Affordable Housing for our Workforce - Vote YES on E
For too long, SF has built housing our workers can't afford to live in. Proposition E will create much-needed jobs to build more housing, and ensure construction workers can afford to live in the very housing they build. Proposition E supports the workers' movement to demand a living wage and strong worker protections. Join labor organizations in voting YES on Proposition E.

Ballot Argument Control Sheet A

Control Sheet A must be submitted for every ballot argument, with required signatures and author information. If your argument has more than one author, you must also submit Control Sheet B with required signatures and information for all additional authors.

For an argument submitted on behalf of an organization, the "Individual" section must also be completed by a principal officer of the organization who must be a registered San Francisco voter.

If an argument states that an individual or organization other than the author supports or opposes the ballot measure, or agrees with or endorses the argument, a completed and signed Consent Form is required.

Facilitate typesetting, and reduce the possibility of transcription error by sending an electronic copy of your ballot argument text within 24 hours after submission to the Department at publications@sfgov.org.

Asian Americans for Real Affordable Housing

We need real affordable housing for our families and seniors to be able to afford living in San Francisco. Proposition E requires two- and three-bedroom units and more housing that is affordable for seniors. Proposition E will help more San Francisco families to stay and thrive for generations to come.

The COVID pandemic hurt our economy and made the San Francisco affordability crisis worse. We need to rebuild and recover – and we can start doing that by passing Proposition E, creating jobs and building housing that our families and seniors can afford to live in.

To recover and rebuild, we need to pass Proposition E. Vote YES on Proposition E.

Proposition E requires two- and three-bedroom units and more housing that is affordable for seniors. Proposition E will help more San Francisco families to stay and thrive for generations to come. The COVID pandemic hurt our economy and made the San Francisco affordability crisis worse. We need to rebuild and recover - and we can start doing that by passing Proposition E, creating jobs and building housing that our families and seniors can afford to live in. To recover and rebuild, we need to pass Proposition E. Vote YES on Proposition E.

	Black Leaders Say YES to Affordable Housing, YES on Proposition E The San Francisco housing crisis has disproportionately impacted our community – 37% of those experiencing homelessness in our city are Black and yet, we only comprise 6% of the City's population. The lack of affordable housing and rising eviction rates has meant that Black renters have disproportionately been forced out – including a 43% decline in Black residents in San Francisco since 1990.
	We cannot let our community be forced out of our homes and out of our city. That's why we need to pass Proposition E, which will accelerate the construction and approval for affordable homes. We need more affordable housing, and we need it now.
